WE DEDICATE OUR MILESTONE

TO HAROLD BRUGUIERE

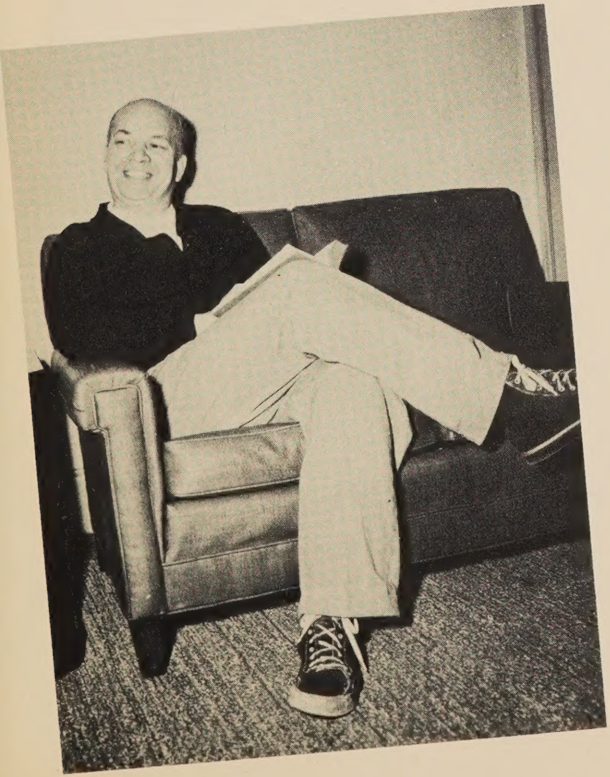
whose flowing good cheer and perennial smile have softened the rough spots of our four year voyage, and whose philosophy and advice have kept our course straight; to you whom we look upon as a friend rather than a "captain," we the class of 1952, proudly and humbly dedicate this, our Milestone.

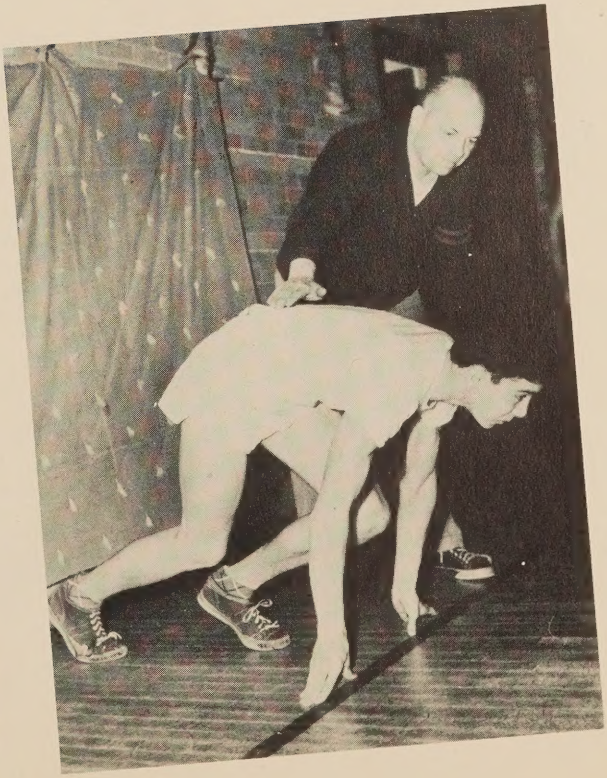
Reared in Newark, New Jersey, Mr. Bruguiere set sail for Plainfield in 1937, where he secured a job as a grammar school physical education teacher until 1938 when he finally anchored in at PHS. Besides teaching physical education, Mr. Bruguiere is also coach of the track and cross-country teams in PHS.

In the summer, Mr. Bruguiere works at Camp Calumet in Vermont at the same type of instruction he gives during the winter. The reason for this year 'round interest in physical education is attributed to Mr. Bruguiere's love of his work and also the wonderful cooperation he has received from the students. Through his guidance he has helped many students obtain sports and academic scholarships for further education.

As a coach he is known best. His ever barking, "Go Hey!" has many times pushed one into that needed fifth place. Just when that "I can't make it feeling" pops into one's head, "Mr. B's" reasuring voice roars from the side lines. He has a track coach's greatest attribute—the boys want to win for him. It is his reward for the many hours, the help, the patience, the friendship and fatherliness which he gives to all—good or bad.

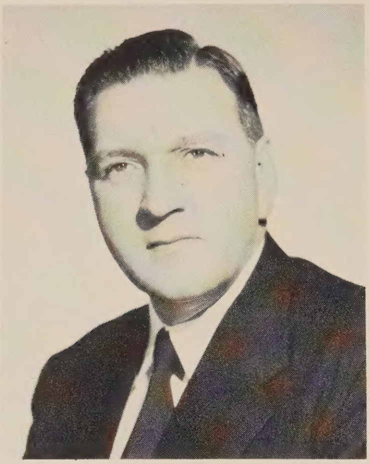
We, the class of 1952, can wish nothing better for the PHS voyages to come than that they may have "Mr. B" as their understanding coach and friend!





ADMINISTRATION and FACULTY

Known to us all is the superintendent of the Plainfield schools, Ralph D. McLeary. He is unexpendable for his work in keeping PHS afloat.



We can never forget our principal, Waldro J. Kindig as the capable skipper of the "Good Ship PHS." He makes sure we keep our course and steer clear of obstacles ahead.

Warren H. Held, our skipper's assistant was popular as head of the language department and is also a good friend as vice principal of our ship.

Also leaving his counseling job to be an administrative assistant is Henry Banta. Mr. Banta's was a well-known face in the history department.

A familiar face in a new position is Lola K. Hoff as an administrative assistant. Miss Hoff has proved as good a friend in her new position as she was as our Dean of Girls.

New to PHS since Christmas is Albert J. Lender from Nutley, N. J. He also is an administrative assistant. I'm sure most of us have seen Mr. Lender keeping an eye on the lunch lines.

LOOKING BACK AT OUR CHARTERED COURSE

As the Good Ship PHS pulls into the harbor to dock for the annual summer vacation, we crewmen, occupying the "Senior Deck," realize that all too soon our four year journey has come to an end.

On a sunny September day in 1948, following Joyce Popovitch, our captain; Bill Luce, Nancy Joy and Ruth Borsuk, our faithful officers, we marched up the plank, amazed at the size of our new home, fascinated by the older passengers, yet looking forward to our promised Freshman Party.

Pete Lawson, Marty Sinteff, Diane Young and Ruth Borsuk commanded our crew in our second year at sea. By then we had learned the ropes, even down to sponsoring a sophomore square dance. And it was we who were responsible for the PHS stickers and decals that decorated the many books and cars around school.

In our junior year, with our pilot crew consisting of Ted Bremble, Gene Herman, Ginny Zieman and Anne Guiness, we became more active in clubs and showed our prominence by presenting our own class play, "Out of the Frying Pan." The year would not have been complete without the successful presentation of our annual dance, "Stairway to the Stars." Outstanding in memory, though, was being able to share Jr.-Sr. Prom responsibilities.

Then with Jim Berrier, Cathy Stubits, Mimi Seltzer and Georgiana Goerz taking charge, we began our last trip with the additional guidance of commander-in-chief Joseph Passarella It was only November when our dramatic members had conquered a Norwegian accent and presented "I Remember Mama." We were equally proud when Bill Luce, David Rice, Joyce Popovitch, and Larry Bartlett, as Student Council officers, guided representatives to solutions of many school problems. The first half of the year slipped by quickly and we were soon involved in college board exams or desperately trying to decide our plans for the future.

Then came June. Instead of the ship's familiar whistle that blows as it prepares to dock, we hear strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" and the rustle of diplomas. As we retrace our steps down the plank, we intrust to the class of '53 the care of the Good Ship PHS, but carry with us fond memories of a journey we shall never forget.

"THE END IS BUT THE COMMENCEMENT..."

It has been a real pleasure and a singular honor to be the classmaster of the distinguished Class of 1952. I hope that by your humility, your competence, and your integrity you merit the recognition and trust your diplomas represent. I hope, too, that by your example and leadership you prove worthy additions to that long line of illustrious and loyal sons and daughters of PHS.

I wish for you what you wish for yourselves . . . all the happiness life can give. How can happiness be attained? I believe happiness comes as a by-product of worthwhile achievements, the fulfillment of noble aspirations. As you grow in understanding, by continuing your education and by observing human beings in action, perhaps you will glean that the good life includes a generous measure of aspirations and some successes. You have already begun to ask yourselves, "What kind of a life do I want to live?" As you work out your answers include all the wholesome and worthwhile goals and experiences that seem reasonable, and then set yourselves to their fulfillment. You may not attain them all, but you are most likely to attain a goodly measure of them. Out of these attainments, I believe, will come your happiness.

In the process of working and reaching toward your goals, may I remind you never to forget one truth: that the means are a part of the ends. How you live, or work, or play, or attain your aims, is as important as the things, the positions, the wealth, the ends, for each end is but a commencement.

You take your leave, but you leave a part of you with us, and you take a part of us with you—our hearts, our hopes, and our prayers.

Sincerely,
J. E. Passarella

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

I don't believe it!

Years from now we'll have our memories of I REMEMBER MAMA. We'll recall the struggles with the accents that were anything but Norwegian; the time Carol wasn't on stage when she was supposed to be and Barb had to ad lib; the fun of eating bread and jam behind stage; Murray's sweeping gestures to go with his poetry; those black stockings! the cat falling asleep backstage; Harold making those delicious ice cream sodas; Bill with his knickers and that celluloid hair receiver; Glad hobbling in those old-fashioned shoes; Miss Mixer shouting, laughing, and being such a wonderful coach throughout the play; the many long rehearsals which we realized were worth it as the applause rolled in on Friday and Saturday nights.

We'll always remember Carol Schreyack, who made us laugh then cry with the warmth and understanding she brought to the role of Mama; John Van Blarcum, as Papa, playing his part with gentleness and humor; Uncle Chris, the soft-hearted gentleman with the booming voice as portrayed by Ted Lutz; Gladys Strony, who was narrator of I REMEMBER MAMA and the sensitive Katrin. And who could ever forget the Aunts? Bossy Aunt Jenny, depicted by Harriet Epstein; timid Aunt Trina, as played by Joan Cazeneuve; Anne Henry as whining Aunt Segrid.

Sue Cadou and Bill Fitz Gerald made us chuckle throughout the play as the kid sister and brother. We all loved Barbara Hoffmier as Dagmar, and her cat, "Uncle Elizabeth." No one could have been a better Peter Torkleson than Phil Gilman. The rest of the cast also distinguished themselves: they were Maurice Holtz, Miriam Seltzer, David Kihn, Paul Loukides, Nancy Grygent, Shirley Whitehead, Harold Wrobel, Faith Nachman, Reva Goldenthal, Marcia Smith and Ted Whitcomb.

As the final curtain rang down on Saturday night we realized that though there would be other events on our school calendar, first and foremost we would "Remember Mama."

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

Our "Good Ship PHS" dropped its anchor and became a showboat the nights of the junior play, "Good Housekeeping." Under the very capable direction of Captain Kramer, the third classmen had smooth sailing and quiet seas for their annual performance.

Remembering the days of rehearsals finds Doris Reddy, student assistant, wondering why she didn't go out for track . . . Ceil and Caryl Anne getting explicit instructions on the stage clinch . . . Mary counting the stitches in Dick's coat during an especially romantic scene.

Nobody will forget opening night when Charles, the dignified college president, shouted "O George!" instead of "Great Scott!" or dress rehearsal when, after hearing Miss Kramer announce to the cast that this was their last practice, Mary Chinni sighed, "The die is cast." To further phrase it, Miss Kramer sneered, "You mean the cast has died!"

UNDERCLASSMEN

C.A.J.

THE JUNIORS

Occupying stateroom 3602 in the Good Ship PHS was the class of 1953 busily making future plans for successful sailing. We're upperclassmen now, well-known and sure-footed on the decks and around the bow. Those flags at the top of the mast are PHS pennants, our first selling venture, the one that put the treasury back on its feet and into the hands of our treasurer Roberta Mingione. Steering the rest of the crew were John Westcott, Captain; Michael Boruch, Chief Mate. Keeping the log is Barbara Warren. The second commander, of course, is classmaster William Sette.

Our voyage has been a smooth one, beginning in September, 1949, under the commodoreship of Stuart Lambert, Captain. The rest of this frosh crew was composed of Neal Resnikoff, Chief Mate; Joan Gladden, secretary, and Paul Troth, Treasurer. Our social jig during that cruise was the Frosh Party in February with its "Water Carnival" theme, and how well we remember the trouble the decoration committee had setting up the cardboard ballerina in keeping with the motif.

September, 1950, dawned bright and clear with Stuart Lambert again piloting the course. Harvey Skolnick, veep; Loretta Comi, secretary, and Joan Gladden, treasurer, ably helped him bear his task. Remember the "Hillbilly Hop"? That was our first plunge in the icy water of planning a real school dance. January third came, and our old-fashioned square dance was well attended. Even "The Thing" appeared via homeroom 330.

And so we grew physically and mentally until this year when we occupied our first stateroom and held the privilege of wishing the underclassmen a . . . bon voyage!

THE SOPHOMORES

Last year as bewildered Freshmen, we stormed the Good Ship PHS with queries of, "Where's the elevator?" and confidently marched out of the teachers' door on the first day of school showing our enthusiasm and intention to make ours the best Freshman Class PHS had ever had. We got the ball rolling with Lowry Mann as President, Dick Miller as Veep, Sue Kramer as Secretary, and Barby Corbin, Treasurer.

Everyone had a lot of fun at the Frosh Dance and worked hard for the Class Play. We added our voice to Student Council and our appetites to the lunch line. The new shrubs around the school were our Class Project.

This year as Sophomores, we have continued in the same spirit. We cast away anchor and set out to sea with Lew Alpaugh as Captain, Mike Gutkin as Chief Mate, Sue Kramer to record in the Log book, and Bobbie Pond to take care of the money. They charted our course well and kept us in smooth seas. We are privileged in having for our Class Commander, Mrs. Marcia Westphal. She has never let us down in a tight spot and can stand her watch with the best. We give her a twenty one gun salute. We took time out from our heavier duties during the year to have our Soph Hop. PHS rocked from stem to stern with the frolics of the Sophomores. We had a lot of fun and added to our chest of money.

As we sail into our last port in the year 1952, we look back over the year at sea. We had both fair and foul weather, but we've never faltered or changed our course. Ours has been only the second voyage on the high seas, but already we're looking ahead to the next one on the Good Ship PHS.

THE FRESHMEN

"We sail the ocean blue on the Good Ship PHS," sang we, the steerage passengers, throughout our busy freshman year. Hampered by teasing and second class passengers who misdirected us to elevators that weren't there, the freshman once again proved themselves seaworthy under any kind of pressure. Starting out our new adventure with Freshman Day, we were introduced to Mr. Kindig, the Admiral of our good ship, his officers, who were to aid us throughout the coming years in learning the ropes, and our own Fourth Commander, Mr. Charles Detgen.

The confusion in the cafeteria, the rush and bustle in the halls and the variety of assemblies excited and awed us by turn but pretty soon we got into the swing of things.

We got off to a good start by taking an active part in Student Council, Library Council, A Cappella choir, Projection Squad, Freshman Football and many other clubs.

To keep our class "shipshape," we picked our leaders, Ronald Bender, Sydell Ruskin, Gretchen Rademaker and Tony Curreri for Captain, Chief Mate, Secretary and Treasurer, who served us most ably.

On our social calendar, the highlight was the Freshman Party, held on November 30, 1951. We all had a swell time that night dancing and playing games. Some of the talented members of our class provided the entertainment for us. This party helped us to feel right at home around PHS. We showed the upper classmen what a real party was like, PHS style.

It was a wonderful fun-packed year for us on the Good Ship PHS. Now we've passed the first knot and are looking forward to the next "three." So with full steam ahead, we'll sail until we reach the end of our course in 1955.

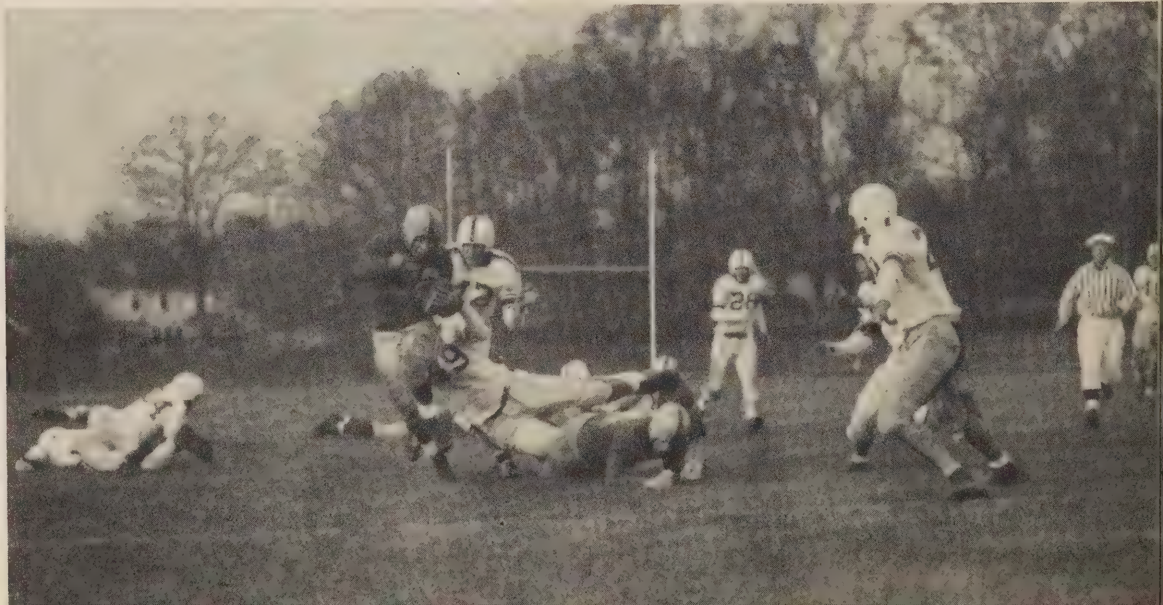
PHS VS. NPHS



DOWN THE FIELD

Plainfeld High's fine 1951 football team concluded its season with a six-win, one-loss, and two-ties. Plainfield's only loss came at the hands of the undefeated Columbia Cougars, New Jersey state champions. The Cardinals' main achievements were a half-interest in the Central Jersey Group IV championship, beating Westfield for the third time in a row, and winning its fifth straight city championship over North Plainfield.

The Cards started their season slowly by tying Long Branch and Losing to Columbia. They first hit the victory column with a 13-0 triumph over Bound Brook. Following this they played Perth Amboy to a 20-20 tie. This tie was the main reason Plainfield and Perth Amboy shared the Central Jersey crown. After this game, Plainfield began to play great football. They racked up five straight impressive victories starting with Asbury Park and finishing with Westfield on Turkey Day. Among these victories were three straight shut-outs over Thomas Jefferson, North Plainfield, and Carteret.

Plainfield finished its season scoring 199 points while limiting its opponents to 52 points. Most of the offensive power came via the ground, although the passing attack picked up needed yardage in several spots. Plainfield had a fine foursome of breakaway runners in Joe Mills, Milt Cambell, Ted Bremble, and Dick Washington. Harry Lambert and Dave Walker handled the passing chores, completing aerials to the aforementioned backs and ends Bill Danitz, and Ben Ianotta. Harry Lambert took care of the points-after-touchdown, Joe Mills handled the punting, and Ray Shanks did the kicking off.

Plainfield had a solid line to go along with its backs. Spearheading the forward wall were ends Bill Danitz, Ben Ianotta, and Hank Gary, tackles Jim Berrier, Steve Romanoski, "Pie" Taylor and Ted Siefert, guards Larry Danitz, Bill Luce, and Ralph Snyder, and centers Dan Campbell, Tony Contreras, and Ronnie MacCauley. This line was hard-charging and blocked well, opening sizeable holes for the backs to rush through.

The Smithmen added poise and polish as the season wore on and although they will lose 23 seniors in June, plenty of good material is left to form a nucleus for next year's team.

Plainfield High's Baseball team finished its season with ten losses and four wins. For a squad that had only one returning letterman, the Cardinals started the season well, playing around the .500 mark for the first eight games of the year.

The Cards played their best game against one of the best teams to face them, beating Regional, 3-1, behind Cass Wanczyk's two-hit pitching.

Coach Liddy had Ralph Snyder and Larry Armour to handle the catching; Rick Johnson and Ben Iannotta at first; Jack Grisley at second; Walt Walker at shortstop; Joe Esler at third; and Rico Parenti, Jack McDonough, Joe Mills, and Steve Ianotta in the outfield. Cas Wanczyk, Hank Greenfield, Frank Fox and Dennis Guinan did the pitching.

TRACK

Paced by Milt Campbell, who set two new Track records in the state meet, and Dick Mathewson's first place in the high jump, the Plainfield track team climaxed their season by winning first place in the State Meet at Rutgers. Plainfield has won the State Meet in 1944, '45, '46, '47, '50 and '51.

Mainstays of the 1951 squad, which was not defeated in five dual meets, were Lionel Washington, Alex Branch, and Dick Washington in the 100 yard and 200 yard dashes; Dick Mathewson and Ted Sheridan in the 440 yard dash; Bill Luce and Don Michie in the 880 yard run; and Milt Campbell, Dick Mathewson and Ted Bremble in the hurdles. Fred VanEck, Bob Bruguiere and Mike Boruch ran in the mile, Harris Phillips and John Pepe did the pole vaulting, Dick Mathewson, Alex Branch, and Henry Foster competed in the high jump, Lionel Washington, Toby Stewart and Dick Washington took care of the broad jump. The shot put and discus were handled by Milt Campbell, Ray Shanks, Pat O'Brien, and Don Bernard. Henry Reiner threw the javelin for the cindermen.

In dual meets Plainfield conquered the Rutgers freshmen, Long Branch, Westfield, Thomas Jefferson, and North Plainfield.

Coach Bruguiere's runners placed second in the Union County Relays, seventh in the Newark Board of Education Relays, and second in the Long Branch Relays.

Besides taking first place in the State Meet, the Cards copped a second place in the Union County Track and Field Meet, and a fourth place in the Central Jersey Meet.

Milt Campbell was named on the scholastic All-American track team by a sport magazine. He gained this berth for his achievements in the high and low hurdle events.

We hope future seasons will be as good as the past one.

SWIMMING

The PHS mermen finished their regular season right on top. This brings our record to 67 wins in the last 68 interscholastic meets. Our only defeat in this period came from the hands of Columbia High in 1950.

Led by such outstanding stars as Alan Fitts, Ted Bernstein, Bill Dryer, and Milt Campbell and backed up very ably by Larry Bartlett, Pete Lawson, Ted Bremble, Don Fort, Denton Seybold, Howard Keller, Marty Dryer, and many others we completed the season by entering second place in the Eastern Interscholastic Championships and second in the State Championships.

The highlight of the season came when we beat the West Point Plebes. This was the first time that we ever conquered them.

Many new records were set this year. Alan Fitts set a new state and school record of 2:09.3. He also set a new pool record of 2:13.3 during the season. Ter Bernstein took first place in the Eastern Championships and second place in the State meet. He set a new PHS record of 1:04.8 and a new pool record of 1:05.6.

Our 150 yard relay team of Ted Bernstein, Bill Dryer, and Milt Campbell won the Eastern championship and tied the state record of 1:23.5.

Bill Dryer retained his State title this year in the 100 yard breaststroke. He set a new PHS mark this year in his specialty, doing 1:06.4.

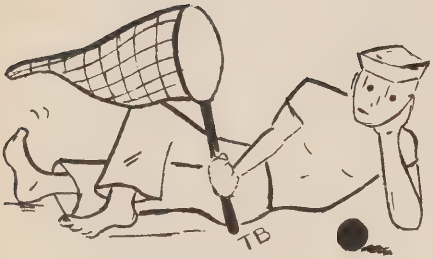
Up for Air

A Perfect Start

First row: Coach Sette, R. Royce, R. Robbins. Second row: B. Hutchinson, J. Harding, L. Coulthurst, J. Peale, C. Brown, M. Margolin.



TENNIS

The 1951 Plainfield High Netsters completed their Spring season in excellent style, winning ten and losing only two. During the season, they piled up five shut-outs against Perth Amboy, Long Branch, Dunellen, North Plainfield and Cranford. They won decisive matches over Thomas Jefferson, whom they defeated twice, and Morristown.

In losing 2-3 to Rahway, the score was reversed on the return match at Plainfield. The Cards' first encounter with Westfield was lost and the second was rained out.

Throughout the season, the team totaled 43 points to their opponents' 17.

Coach William Sette had Larry Coulthurst, Charles Brown, Kent Martin, Russell Robin, Dean Wachtel to lead the varsity squad, which also included Robert Hutchinson, James Peale, and Oliver Kolock.

Larry Coulthurst's name was chosen for the honor plaque in the Boys' Gym.

According to Coach Sette, the outlook for the 1952 season is bright, with many new hopefuls to bolster the squad.

CROSS COUNTRY

Coach Harold Bruguiere's harriers didn't do so well as some of his previous teams. The inexperienced runners won their first meet by defeating Rahway, but dropped their next four encounters to end up with one win and four defeats.

Considering that Coach Bruguiere had only one returning letterman in his son Bob, Mr. Bruguiere thought the boys did fairly well. They finished fifth in the Union County and Central Jersey Meets, and eighteenth in the State Meet.

Bob Bruguiere placed fourth in the Union County Meet, fourth in Central Jersey Meet, and seventeenth in the State Meet. Other boys who gained points for Plainfield are Hank Greenfield, Ben Johnson, Dave Carlson, Carlton Vail, Warren Koplowitz, Bob Jones, Richard Snyder, Tom Ford, and Ed Sherako.

According to Mr. Bruguiere, next season should be about the same or even worse, for graduation will take away Bob Bruguiere, Hank Greenfield, Dave Carlson, and Bob Jones.

Top Ten

First row: B. Jones, B. Popavitch, J. Hedrick, W. Koplowitz, C. Vail, H. Greenfield. Second row: J. Abney, Mgr.; E. Sherako, B. Bruguiere, T. Ford, B. Johnson.

BASKETBALL

Starting Five

Compiling one of the best records for a basketball team coached by Bill Brann, the Cards wound up the season with fifteen wins against two setbacks. The only losses were to Rahway and Linden. These, however, were later reversed. Mainstays of the Cardinal five were seniors Jack McDonough, Tommy Regan, Joe Mills, Ben Iannotta and juniors Bill Danitz and Dave Walker.

The Cards defeated Westfield, Regional, Union, Bound Brook and North Plainfield twice; they defeated Roselle Park, New Brunswick, Linden, Rahway and Dunellen once.

In the Union County tournament, the Cards won the opening game by defeating St. Patrick's of Elizabeth. They were beaten, however, in the quarter-finals by Linden, 60-46.

In Big Five competition, they ended in a two-way tie for first place with Rahway. They defeated Rahway in a playoff. Seniors who participated for the last time were Jack McDonough, Tom Regan, Joe Mills, Al Levine, Ben Iannotta, Joe Corrigan and Henry Reiner.

For next year, Mr. Brann has as a nucleus Dave Walker, Bill Danitz, Mike Boruch, John Westcott, Jim Erickson, Frank Blatz, and a few outstanding members of the Jayvee squad.

Against North Plainfield, the Cards established a new scoring record of ninety points.

WRESTLING

The 1951-1952 version of Plainfield's wrestling team finished its season with a 1-8 record, its one victory being over St. Benedict's Prep. Some of the defeats were very close and could have been ours if one more match had gone our way. The team never seemed to have the same boys winning in two or three successive meets. Plainfield's most consistent winners were Bill Luce, Lindsley Bartletta, Frank Zampella, Arnold Fredericks, and Paul Reiss. Other boys who turned in creditable performances were LeRoy Hush, Marty Sinteff, Joe Nardolla, Bill Smith, Wally Van Horn, Tony Griffa, Neil Resnikoff, and Frank Del Bene.

The team did not enter the county or state meets because of their under par season, but we hope they will do better next year.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

"Yipee!" . . . the excited screams of female voices echo through the building. Basketball is in progress. Miss Georgina Gage, adviser of the group, officiates during the games which are played every Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

This sport, which is open to girls of all classes, is one of the many for which special credit is given. Each class participating in the sport is divided into teams that play one another within their own class during the year. Rival teams from neighboring schools provide keen competition for the girls.

At the end of the year, the best players from each class form teams and play interclass tournaments. Points are awarded for regular attendance and participation on the Red and Blue team of each class. Accumulation of points enables a girl to receive various intramural awards.

TENNIS

Squires, D. Schatzman. Third row: A. Lee, J. Williams, J. Laws, A. Burgess, B. Strosahl, M. Massars, P. Jacobs, M. Johansen, L. Silbert, C. Seip. Fourth row: T. Smith, D. Williams, L. Britton, D. "Hi, kids!" Meet you at the courts in fifteen minutes." Excited yells such as this met the ears of many PHS girls this fall. Tennis was in season! Mrs. Persinger, director of the group, supervised and taught many girls interested in tennis. The girls met every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon at the PHS tennis courts.

Teams were chosen to provide the girls with competition. At the end of the season, the best players from each class organized special teams. Tournaments were held, and the players of the winning team were given special merit towards the intramural awards.

"Whiz . . . Boing!" Better duck or you might get hit by the fast flying arrows. They are being shot by the female archers of PHS. Mrs. King supervises the sport which is fast growing in popularity. This group meets every Monday and Wednesday afternoons during the spring season.

Developing skill through practice and having fun are this activity's goals. The season closes with a bang. Tournaments are held to find the best archers of PHS. The winner of the tournaments is given special credit towards the various intramural awards, while the two persons in second and third places are given special merits.

ARCHERY

First row: B. Sheridan, J. Dunbar, P. Carpenter, J. Gilbert, D. Dunbar, B. Day, D. Coleman, D. Hall, J. Waldron, R. Booth.

It is often said that girls are the weaker sex. Obviously the quoters of this saying haven't attended any of the PHS girls' softball games.

When Miss Marion Newson announced the opening of the softball season, a large number of girls attended the first meeting of this sport. Captains were chosen and teams elected to give the girls a chance to learn teamwork and sportsmanship.

The teams met twice a week at Kenyon Gardens to practice and to improve their game. During the season, the competition was keen. The accumulation of points for the various sports has entitled a girl to the intramural awards.

MODERN

DANCE

"One, two, three, four. Bend, two, three, four. That's the way, girls. Keep it up. Good work." These are some of the many statements you might hear from Miss Nita Kilbourne any Monday activity period. The Modern Dance Club is in session.

Miss Kilbourne organized such a club when she came to PHS this year. Many girls were turned away because the capacity of the club is sixteen. The club provides wholesome recreation and enjoyment while teaching the techniques of modern dance to those interested in the dance.

First row: A. Mortimer, K. Lee, J. Saunders, D. Penellton, M. Tobin. Second row: J. Jackson, B. Sheridan, E. Bowie. Third row: C. Carty, B. Hardy, A. Morgan, H. Hediger, C. Cazeneuve, C. Siegrist, M. Balen. Absent: H. Lagois.
